Created for the DADA HUB AI Toolkit workshop. All organisations, requirements, dates, rates and commercial details are illustrative.

Section 1 / Purpose And Scope

The fictional Parklands Learning Centre invites quotations for routine office cleaning at its fictional Parklands premises. The cleaned floor area is 400 square metres. Service is required three times per week: Monday, Wednesday and Friday after 6:00 PM. The proposed start date is 16 November 2026. The initial contract term is three months. Routine cleaning covers floors, desks, washrooms and waste collection to the designated on-site collection point. The contractor supplies cleaning products, equipment and staff. Window cleaning once per month is included in the requested scope and must be priced separately. The number, size and height of windows, and the need for external high-level access, have not yet been specified.

Section 2 / Mandatory Submission Items

A submission must include all of the following:

2.1 A copy of the bidder's business registration certificate.

2.2 A current tax compliance certificate.

2.3 Two references for office-cleaning work completed in the last 24 months.

2.4 The name and role of the proposed site supervisor.

2.5 A signed quotation showing the monthly routine-cleaning amount, monthly window-cleaning amount, any applicable taxes and the monthly total.

2.6 A one-page method statement explaining safe chemical use and how cleaning staff will follow the client's site-access procedures.

Section 3 / Budget And Price Presentation

The budget ceiling is KES 120,000 per month inclusive of all applicable taxes. The bidder must state assumptions, exclusions and any required clarifications. This document does not prescribe a per-square-metre market rate or a tax rate. No contract award is promised by this request.

The source does not state a method or deadline for clarification requests, payment terms, insurance requirements, or minimum staffing levels. Do not assume those details or describe them as mandatory bid requirements.
